

Rapid Reads 2.3

Name.....

Number of times read (date, initial):

My rating/10

| | | | | | |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|
| | | | | | |
|--|--|--|--|--|--|

Mrs Hen and the Easter Bunny

It was nearly Easter, and all the animals on the farm were happy, except for Mrs Hen. She was sad. She had lost her egg.

She had been sitting on it, keeping it warm, and she just got off her nest to get some food. When she got back to her nest, the egg was gone. She had looked everywhere, and she asked everyone, but she could not find it anywhere.

The other animals tried to cheer her up. "Easter Bunny will be here tomorrow," they said, "and we will all have chocolate eggs!"

"I don't want any chocolate" said Mrs Hen, "I just want my egg". She went sadly back to her empty nest.

That night, someone came creeping into the farm, and in the morning, all the animals found bright Easter eggs next to their beds.

Mrs Hen was still very sad, but she pecked at her Easter egg.

All of a sudden, the egg started to crack, and after a few minutes, a little chicken popped out.

"Hi, Mum!" it said, "Happy Easter!"

THE END

Can you break these words into smaller words?

everywhere

everyone

someone

tomorrow